APRIL 2025

Sandy Fire Main Station

Skylar Received Citizen Life Saving Award

Duckling Rescue

Highlights

- Skylar Delaunay, a 7th grader at Gardner Middle School in Oregon City, was presented with a Citizen Life Saving Award for saving his older brother's life.
- Clackamas Fire attended the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce The Bite and presented an overview of emergency response efforts in Sandy.
- The Beavercreek Station will be accepting yard debris free of charge on May 10 and June 8. This event is offered to homeowners in the District to help reduce risk around their homes from wildfires.
- Clackamas Fire is conducting wildland urban interface exercises with Clackamas County. These tabletop exercises are centered around a simulated emerging fire and are designed to provide realistic experience to incident commanders, the County Emergency Operations Center, and the Public Information Officers from cooperating agencies.
- With levy funds, a 24/7 staffed fire station, located in rural Oregon City's Logan area, is scheduled to open July 1, 2025.
- Annexation talks with Gladstone City Council and Sandy Fire District's Board of Directors continue for a possible annexation with both cities. If approved, voters will be able to cast their ballots in November 2025. Open houses have been scheduled for the public to ask questions about the annexations.

May 3 Open House - Sandy Main Fire Station

May 10 Open House - Gladstone Fire Station

May 17 Open House - Gladstone Community Center

June 7 Open House - Sandy Dover Fire Station

Notable Events/Calls

April 12 – Technical Rescue at Willamette Falls

Reports were received at approximately 11 p.m. that a person in a kayak had gone over the Willamette Falls. This incident involved collaboration with numerous agencies, including Clackamas County Sheriff's Office, Oregon City PD, West Linn PD, Canby Fire, Lake Oswego Fire, Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue, Portland Air Ops, and the US Coast Guard, and was widely covered by the media. Access was a challenge, and drones were utilized in the search. After an extended search, the victim was not located and presumed drowned. The body was later located and recovered on May 4, just North of Meldrum Bar Park.

We're happy to receive your compliment! Tell us about it	I just want to say thank you so much for getting to my brother, so darn fast as he was having issues breathing because he's on oxygen and a circuit breaker popped and his machine wasn't working. You got to him so fast and I know that he's very grateful and can relax because of it. I just think the world of you, thank you!
